

Walks

- 8am Bird Walk with Ed
- 10.30am The meadow with Ed
- 11am Nature Rhythms with Algy
- 11.30am Practical Plants with Steve
- 12.30pm Tree walk with Ed
- 1.30pm Practical Plants with Steve

Garden of Promise

- 12 noon I live here prizegiving
- 1pm Discovering flutes with Emily Correa Andrews

Ring of Bales

- 1.45pm Percussion workshop with Algy

Emersons Green Park July 1st Programme

Main Tent

- 10.30am The Earth and Us
- 11.30am The Great Day Choir
- 12.30pm Emersons Green Primary Choir
- 1.45pm The Earth and Us
- 3pm Brigstowe Village Band

Community Nature Reserve Tent

- 11am Bird Box building
- 2pm insect House building

Also
Pebble painting
Scavenger hunt

Parade

9.30 for 10am from
Langley Arms

Stalls

Nature, craft and food
stalls

Please note events in green type are prebookable through Eventbrite but you can also pitch up on the day if there is space

Prebookable walks and workshops

8am Bird Walk

Get your festival day off to a bright start as naturalist Ed Drewitt introduces you to the birds in the park. Book here.

10.30am The Meadow

Discover the original Emersons Green, an ancient meadow just 100 yards from the park. Work with Ed Drewitt to identify flowers and use sweep nets to examine insects in the grasses. Book here.

11am Nature Rhythms Walk

Join Algy Behrens as he opens up our senses to the world around us and draws us together in rhythms created using trees, branches and forest floors.

Book here.

11.30am Practical plants

Take a walk with Steve England and be fascinated by the range of plants in and around the park and their uses.

Book here.

12.30pm Tree Walk

Meet the oldest inhabitants of our park, the trees. Walk with Ed Drewitt around the park and discover the importance of trees for all life. Book here.

1.30pm Practical plants

A second chance to walk with Steve England and be fascinated by the range of plants in and around the park and their uses. Book here.

Walks leave from the Community Nature Reserve Tent

11am Bird box (book here) and 2pm Insect house (book here) workshops will be built using precut, predrilled wood, using screwdrivers (provided)

The Garden of Promise

you are invited to buy a wildflower at Avon Wildlife Trust' stall and place it in the garden while making your own promise to the Earth.

Wildflowers will be planted in the park after the festival.

More information

9.30am Parade

Join us at the Langley for a fun parade led by Michael Loader and Fiona Barrow. We hope to have flowers for you to carry and, if you want to, you can dress in green tops and red hats after our bird of the year, the Green Woodpecker.

10.30am and 1.45pm The Earth and Us

Take a journey through Earth history with music and dance, encounter dinosaurs, floods and meteorites, and discover the great story that embraces all life on Earth, performed by Chris Sunderland and Michael Loader, storyteller with music by Fiona Barrow

11.30am The Great Day Choir

Hear this choir of local women singing songs which are upbeat, fun and make us feel good - led by founder Beth Morgan,

12.30pm Emersons Green Primary School

The choir of the school, encouraged by Algy, have been working hard to compose a 'Song for the Earth' which they will perform for us among other songs.

1pm Discovering flutes with Emily Correa Andrews

Come and discover some fascinating instruments with internationally acclaimed local flautist Emily Correa Andrews. Listen to beautiful music, hear the stories that inspired the music, ask all the questions you like, get up close and touch some of the instruments, and see if she can build a flute from a vegetable with everyone watching!

1.45pm Percussion workshop with Algy Behrens

Take some time with Algy to reveal the rhythm that lives within you. Instruments supplied

3pm Brigstowe Village Band

Returning to us for their third year, the rural-themed band will perform for us, dressed up from the era of Thomas Hardy. They may even bring their hobby horse!