Brigstowe Village Band

Is modelled on the spirited village bands of the nineteenth century. We play traditional folk tunes of the British Isles in multipart harmony.

We play for a large variety of public and private events. Our programmes are tailored to each occasion and include traditional tunes, songs, words and dances.

If you are thinking of booking us, or if you wish to join us with your unamplified, portable instrument please email bvb.committee@gmail.com
